FOR COLORADO TOURISTS.

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad company has asked its competitors in the Western and Southwestern Passenger association to agree to a series of cheap excursions to and from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo for the approaching season on the following basis:

Tickets to be sold from Chicago and all territory up to the Missouri river on June 18 and 25, July 16, 23 and 30, August 6, 13, 20 and 27, at a rate of one fare plus $2 for the round trip. On July 2 and 9, September 3 and 10, a rate of $25 is to be made from Chicago and $15 from Missouri river points for the round trip, intermediate territory to carry proportionate rates and tickets to be sold from Missouri river points one day later than the dates given above. Proportionate rates will be made to and from Glenwood Springs, Salt Lake and Ogden.

A series of eastbound excursions is also proposed, tickets to be sold from Colorado common points every Thursday commencing with June 20, up to and including September 12, at a rate of one fare plus $2 for the round trip.

All tickets to be limited for return on or before October 31.

These rates will be tendered connecting lines for basing purposes, which will probably insure a very low basis of rates throughout the United States for the excursions. The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific will make these rates and arrangements effective, regardless of the action of its competitors and will run special trains on the dates named.

London Studying Rats.

A study of the condition of the rats in wharves, riverside premises, and sewers having been commended to the metropolitan borough councils by the London county council, a Daily Mail representative yesterday made inquiries as to the feelings of the councils on the matter.

Prevention of the spread of disease is of course the aim of the county council, and its proposal is favorably regarded by those councils most interested in it. In many cases a sharp lookout is already kept for rats, and their conditions are closely investigated.

Take West Ham, for instance. The council there has within the area of its operations a very large portion of the docks, and an official told the Daily Mail representative yesterday that it employs twelve inspectors, and that each one has received instructions to watch closely for any rats that may come ashore from ships or make their homes in the sewers or riverside premises.

"At the time of the plague scare in Glasgow," he said, "the council engaged a man with special knowledge of the subject to investigate the conditions of rats and anything else likely to spread disease, and he is still making his inquiries."

"Up to the present nothing to be alarmed at has been discovered. There has not been any bacteriological examination of the rodents, but, if we found any unusual mortality among them, or anything at all suspicious, we should certainly have such an examination."

"We now employ the most stringent means possible for exterminating rats, and the number found in our district, considering its nature, is not at all large."—London Mail.

Abstinent drinking in Switzerland is increasing to such an extent that various societies have been formed for the purpose of delivering illustrated lectures all over the country, showing the terrible effect this liquor has on the system.
